Dancing & “singing” with Finnish songs,Frööbelin palikat

PÄÄ,OLKAPÄÄ,PEPPU,POLVET,VARPAAT...SILMÄT,KORVAT JA VATSAA TAPUTA... ;)

15.11.2013 After a lovely day at English nursery (the children are sooo nice,love them all!

we had dancing & “singing” with Finnish songs. Frööbelin palikat,the name of the music group of four funny men or “crazy” like Natalie said ;)They were a big hit among children,when me and my big sister were little :) I brought their CD with me from Finland and later my mum sent their DVD here.I translated some of the songs from the CD in English beforehand to give at least some kind of a general picture of what exactly they are singing about.

Here is a link where you can see the translations of the songs:fröobelit

we danced pää,olkapää,peppu... ,aamuin illoin and Ville ja Valle few times from the CD and after that we went to watch the DVD and danced some songs from there.We had “belts” for everyone,blue and white like the Finnish flag;Natalies great idea ;)When it ended their received their own Finnish flag and some sweets from Finland.

Task,mainly for parents, to join the Finnish words from the head shoulders,knees and toes song(pää,olkapää..) to Czech ones;would you be able to make it? ;) Suomi tsekki,pää olkapää...jne

Getting ready for dancing:Making Ville and Valle,everyone got their own Ville and Valle,smiles on their thumbs :)

I feel like that the activity succeeded well, everything went great! The most important thing was that we had fun! Thank you/kiitos for all the participants and special kiitos for Natalie! :))
